LIVE THE LEGEND

Located between two historical canals in the heart of the city, Sofitel Legend The Grand Amsterdam boasts a rich history. From a 15th-century convent to royal lodgings to Dutch admiralty headquarters to the city hall of Amsterdam. The Grand offers five-star luxury in a unique 'Amsterdam' ambiance, furnished with French elegance and grandeur. The rooms, restaurants and bars, the banqueting halls and the beautiful Garden Terrace captivate and seduce everyone into visiting the hotel.

The interior of the hotel is designed to meet the highest demands of modern-day travellers. The hotel is a blend of French elegance and Dutch stylistic elements. The tulip and butterfly are recurring themes and an abundance of magical natural light filters through this city palace.

The French interior architect Sybille de Margerie, famous for her work at the legendary Hôtel de Crillon in Paris and Hôtel Cheval Blanc in Courchevel, drew much of her stylish design inspiration from the lively colours of the famous mural by COBRA-artist Karel Appel, which is situated at the entrance of the restaurant area.

This bell tower is the oldest part of The Grand and dates back to 1411.

SUITES AND CANAL HOUSE SUITES

Most guests of Sofitel Legend The Grand Amsterdam are already familiar with the classic arched lobby ceiling, the authentic courtyard, the stunning inner garden and the library. Many guests are now also discovering how the contemporary design elements blend magnificently with these authentic features.

The hotel boasts beautiful stained glass windows, marble staircases with rosewood handrails and monumental meeting rooms and banqueting halls representing different architectural styles, in particular the 1920s and 1930s. The suites are also designed to create a harmonious blend of the historic and modern stylistic elements of the hotel. The rich heritage of the site has been carefully preserved while ensuring that the accommodations are equipped with the advanced technology expected by today's traveller.

Suites

The Grand has 52 suites in total, ranging from Junior Suites, Prestige Suites and Opera Suites to the highly exclusive Imperial Suites and Royal Suite. For the design of the Imperial Suites, Sybille de Margerie drew inspiration from the legendary people who stayed at The Grand, resulting for example in the William of Orange Suite and the Maria de Medici Suite. The result is a harmonious blend of traditional and contemporary design features, including typical Dutch style elements. Needless to say, the suites are also fully equipped with the latest technology and features.

The suites are regularly visited by heads of state, celebrities, artists and ambassadors from all around the world. Guests feel privileged to stay at these unique locations, steeped in history and infused with memories of a distant past.

The Imperial Suites have a spacious sitting area with large dining table and 65-inch flat screen television, a large bedroom with spacious bathroom equipped with a very own hammam (steam bath). The suites are decorated with works of art that evoke memories of the legendary people that have visited The Grand. The Imperial Suites can be interconnected with a Superior Room. All suites include butler service.

The most prestigious suite of The Grand is the Royal Suite. This suite is located on the third floor of a canal house and it overlooks the hotel's authentic courtyard.

Canal House Suites

Twelve Canal House Suites are situated in the former official residences of famous Dutch admirals, such as Michiel de Ruyter. In these suites you go back to a metropolitan history dating back to the 17th century. The timeless elegance of cream-coloured walls, wooden ceiling beams, warm autumn colours and a subtle mix of classic and modern furniture. Various Canal House Suites feature a fully-equipped kitchenette. Additionally, several apartments have a private roof terrace or a 'split level' layout. Three apartments offer a private entrance at the Oudezijds Achterburgwal.

EXPERTISE AND ETIQUETTE BUTLER SERVICE

Luxury is not merely a case of material comfort, it also encompasses the human factor; 'savoir-faire' and 'savoir-être' (expertise and etiquette). Men and women who are truly passionate about their profession, ambassadors who bring the hotel to life. They bring a ray of sunshine to everyday life and place their considerable talents at the service of our guests.

The Grand offers free butler service to guests staying in one of the 52 spacious suites. This exclusive service offers special benefits, such as personalised rooming, (un)packing of suitcases and presenting 'pillow menu's' and 'bath rituals'.

The butler provides a unique and direct line between the guest and the hotel services offered, such as rentals of cars and limousines, bicycles and chariots, laundry service and shoe polishing, reservations in restaurants and clubs, excursions and tours, and anything else to make the stay at The Grand the most comfortable and memorable as possible.

EXPERTISE AND ETIQUETTE

JUNIOR SUITES

Contemporary design, warmed by bare brick, deep mahogany and plush textiles characterise the interior of the Junior Suites. The living room of the Junior Suites is decorated in velvety shades of aqua, plum or sienna. The spacious bedroom features a king-size Sofitel MyBed and a comfortable sitting area and connects to a generous bathroom with walk-in shower, stylish bath and Hermès amenities.
